

Tom Callahan
Member at Large

Chuck graduated from Iowa State with a degree in Bacteriology in 1972. He spent his entire career in the Quality Assurance field; primarily in the food business. He spent the last thirteen years of his career as Vice President of Quality for Russell Stover Candies in Kansas City, Missouri. He retired in 2015.

Tom Callahan

Tom and his wife, Janet, became members of the Tatum Ranch Community in 2014. Tom became a member of the Tatum Ranch board of directors in 2014 and continues to serve on the board dedicated to the goals of our wonderful community. As a member of the association's planning committee he assists our community manager in defining and researching the current needs and future needs of Tatum Ranch. He was also served as the vice president of his previous residence HOA.

Tom is a retired psychotherapist of 40 years. In addition to having run a private practice he has held positions of vice president and president of local professional societies. Tom also served as finance chair of a national clinical society.

Tom believes the board of directors are responsible for the business of keeping Tatum Ranch a viable and desirable place to live. Communication with residents is an important part of keeping our goals up to date with the times and desires of our community. The relationship between the board and residents should be a partnership of sharing ideas for now and in the future.